

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SIERRA DOOR CO. promotes Richard Wallis to President

(June 2007 – Scottsdale, AZ)

Sierra Door is pleased to announce the promotion of Richard Wallis to the position of President. Wallis had previously served as Vice President of Operations and has been with Sierra Door since 1999.

According to James Williams, Owner and Chief Executive Officer of Sierra Door, “Wallis’s acceptance of this appointment could not have come at a better time as his leadership skills, industry experience, and his understanding of our products and customers is critical to the Sierra team and our customers as we continue our aggressive growth plans during these soft market conditions. We are pleased that we were able to promote from within and have a person with his level of industry background that includes operational, purchasing, and financial experience”.

Wallis’s appointment became effective June 1, 2007.

Sierra Door is a leading producer and supplier of unique and distinguished stain grade and primed wood door products with national and private label distribution.
